Vaishnavi Sandesh Virkud

Mobile: +91 8446659872 | vsvirkud01@gmail.com
https://www.linkedin.com/in/vaishnavi-virkud/ | https://github.com/VaishnaviVirkud

Highly motivated and detail-oriented graduate who recently completed a master's degree in computer applications.  Eager to leverage theoretical knowledge and hands-on experience gained through academic projects to contribute effectively to an organization. Seeking a challenging entry-level position to apply strong analytical, research, and problem-solving skills. Committed to contributing positively to a dynamic team and achieving professional growth.

EDUCATION

Master of Computer Application (75.71%, 8.16 CGPA)                                                June 2022 – April 2024
Sadhu Vaswani Institute of Management Studies for Girls, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune
Bachelor of Science (Computer Science) (71.72%, 8.90 CGPA)                           June 2019 – April 2022
Modern College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Shivajinagar, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune
HSC (60.15%)                                                                                                              June 2017- Feb 2019
Modern College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Shivajinagar, Maharashtra State Board, Pune
SSC (85.40%)                                                                                                                             March 2017
Stella Maris School, Maharashtra State Board, Pune

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Languages: C, C++, HTML5, CSS3, Bootstrap5, Python, PHP, JavaScript, React.js
- Tools: UI/UX (Adobe XD, Figma), XAMPP, Microsoft Excel, Photoshop
- Database: SQL, MySQL
- Operating System: Windows

EXPERIENCE:

- Full Stack Development                                                                                           Jan 2024 – April 2024
  Cubit Technology – Internship
  Collaborated in teams to design and develop a web-based application that facilitates connections among alumni from various institutes, using HTML5, CSS3, Bootstrap5, JavaScript, PHP, and React.js.

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

Urban Root:                                                                                                                                    2024
Designed and developed a plant nursery website using Figma to create a user-friendly and visually appealing interface. Gained proficiency in Photoshop, specifically learning techniques like background removal and image enhancement to optimize product visuals for the website.
Courier Management System:                                                                                                     2024
A web-based application that helps to automate and simplify the working process of courier companies.
Used HTML, CSS, JavaScript and PHP for frontend and backend development and MySQL for database management.
Society Management System:                                                                                                      2023
Developed an automated system to help societies to simplify the daily work process. Used HTML, CSS, JavaScript and PHP for frontend and backend development and MySQL for database management.
Food Zone:                                                                                                                                       2022
Designed and developed a restaurant website design using Figma.

CERTIFICATE COURSES

- JP Morgan Chase & Co's Excel Skills Job Simulation                                                                  2024
- Python 3.4.3 Training by Spoken Tutorial (IIT Bombay)                                                               2022
- Crash Course on Python                                                                                                                   2021